Broadcast media and telecommunications companies turn to Davina for Federal Communications Commission (FCC) regulatory compliance counsel, strategic policy advocacy, and direction of transactions of regulated assets. She has extensive experience analyzing complex and controversial FCC regulatory policy issues and advising clients on the operational and business implications of FCC policy changes. For nearly two decades, Davina has represented broadcast and telecommunications clients on routine FCC regulatory compliance matters, transactions and mergers, spectrum auctions, broadcast ownership issues, political broadcasting rules, as well as FCC investigations, enforcement proceedings, and administrative hearings. Davina also has extensive experience advocating for broadcast and telecommunications clients in FCC rulemaking proceedings and in litigation before federal courts.
