Jonathan works closely with clients in the tech, media, and telecom industries to enable them to overcome regulatory and transactional challenges and achieve their business objectives. He leverages his deep knowledge of the legal, regulatory, political, and public policy landscape in D.C., gained through his long career in private law practice (mostly at WBK) and his experience working in government (at the White House and FCC), political campaigns, and the media.

Jonathan advises clients ranging from innovative start-ups to Fortune 50 companies and has been singled out for nationwide recognition for “outstanding service” on corporate and commercial transactions. His ability to achieve positive results for clients stems from instincts honed through work on various leading public policy issues in the telecom, media, and tech regulatory space over the past 40+ years, more recently including artificial intelligence and content regulation. Jonathan co-chairs the Emerging Issues in Technology committee of the FCBA-The Tech Bar and is a frequent speaker at industry events. He holds the Martindale Hubbell AV® Preeminent Peer Review Rating and is perennially selected as a Washington DC SuperLawyer.

Jonathan devotes time to pro bono legal matters and volunteer activities and was named to the D.C. Bar’s Pro Bono Honor Roll for 2021. When not working, he likes to hike, bike, golf, swim, and spend time with his family (which of course includes the dogs).
