Megan Chavez is an associate in the firm's Corporate Transactional group. Megan values innovation, integrity, and ingenuity when advising clients on corporate transactional matters. Through her expertise, Megan offers an attentive, quick, risk-evaluation skillset to help clients navigate areas requiring protections and maximize goals. Megan practices in a wide variety of corporate areas, including, mergers and acquisitions, corporate finance, and general corporate governance. With a keen understanding towards business objectives, Megan enjoys a hands-on approach to learning about her clients and drilling into a transaction, determining the optimal way to strategically deliver on client needs.

Prior to joining the firm, Megan worked at a Denver-based national law firm. She received her J.D. from the University of Colorado Law School in 2019 and graduated from Carleton College with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Economics.

As a Colorado native, Megan takes pride in staying active in her community and volunteering. In her spare time, Megan enjoys golfing, reading books, and watching the Denver Broncos.
